

TAMBOLA – RISE AND PRAISE

Words Re-imagined and arranged by Kofi Konadu, except the Twi.

Background

The original Tambola chant uses rhythmic syllables without clear meaning, except the word “Tambola,” which in Lingala can mean “rise, walk, move.” This arrangement transforms the chant into a Christian praise piece in several languages, each expressing the message:

“Rise up and praise the Lord, for He deserves our praise.”

TWI VERSION

Main Section

Singing: Mo nsɔ-re nyi Nya-me’a-yɛ, na ɔ-sɛ aye-yi’o.

[Reading: Mo nsɔre nyi Nyame ayɛ, na ɔsɛ ayeyi o.]

Call and Response

Lead: Sɔ-re

Choir: Mo nsɔ-re

ENGLISH VERSION

Main Section

Singing: Rise-up-now praise-the-Lord, for-He de-serves-all-our-praise.

[Reading: Rise up now, praise the Lord, for He deserves all our praise.]

Call and Response

Lead: Praise-Him

Choir: Praise-the-Lord

GA VERSION

Main Section

Singing: Te shi wɔ- jie nyɔ-mɔ, eja-kɛ-esa yi-jie-mɔ.

[Reading: Te shi wɔ jie nyɔmɔ yi, ejaake esa yijiemɔ.]

Call and Response

Lead: Te - shi

Choir: Nyɛ Te-shi

EWE VERSION

Main Section

Singing: Tso-ka-ba mi-ka-fui E-dze-be Mia-ka-fu-i

[Reading: Tso-ka-ba mi-ka-fui E-dze-be Mia-ka-fui.]

Call and Response

Lead: Ka-fui

Choir: Mi-ka-fui